Letter from the Student Council Co-Presidents

Dear Lick-Wilmerding Community:

This year has been anything but ordinary, from Zoom classes and three-day weekends to spitting in tubes while surrounded by your peers. We congratulate all of you on persisting through this year, continuing your growth as both learners and individuals. When we look around the Lick-Wilmerding community, we are incredibly inspired by what you have accomplished despite the circumstances. We've seen students create apps, share their passions through virtual clubs, organize social movements for change, create policies that improve the Lick community for future students, and so much more.

Frosh, though we personally don't know you very well, we can only imagine how difficult it has been to enter the Lick community virtually. You managed to build community and forge close-knit friendships in a year when that seemed nearly impossible. Seeing all of you bond reminds us of our own frosh experience, and we can safely say that the next three years will be an amazing journey where you discover more about yourself and your passions, take risks, and form lifelong connections.

Sophomores, how time flies! The last time you were on campus you were just frosh and now, you're only two years away from graduating. You've already begun to step up as leaders in the Lick community, demonstrating to frosh and the rest of us what empathetic and involved students look like. The energy and passion you bring to the community is uplifting to all of us, and you are proof of Lick's mission to foster lifelong learners. We can't even begin to imagine what all of you will accomplish at Lick and beyond.

Juniors, your love for Lick and each other is heartwarming, and we can confidently say that you are ready to step up as the role models of this community. You've set the bar high for future students, showing the rest of us how communities can flourish even when they're not physically together. We won't sugarcoat it; senior year will be challenging, but we have full confidence that you are ready to confront it head on. You give us hope that the Lick community can and will thrive under any future circumstances.

Seniors, we doubt you're even reading this, but if you are, WE OUTTIE! Looking back at our frosh year, it's insane to see how both we and the Lick community have grown. We still remember chanting "four more years!" at our very first community meeting, and now, those four years have come to an end. As we go our separate ways, we are excited to see how you will build on the values and skills you've learned at Lick, and we hope that you will maintain the connections you've built here. We will miss you all and can't wait to see you all at our future alumni reunions!

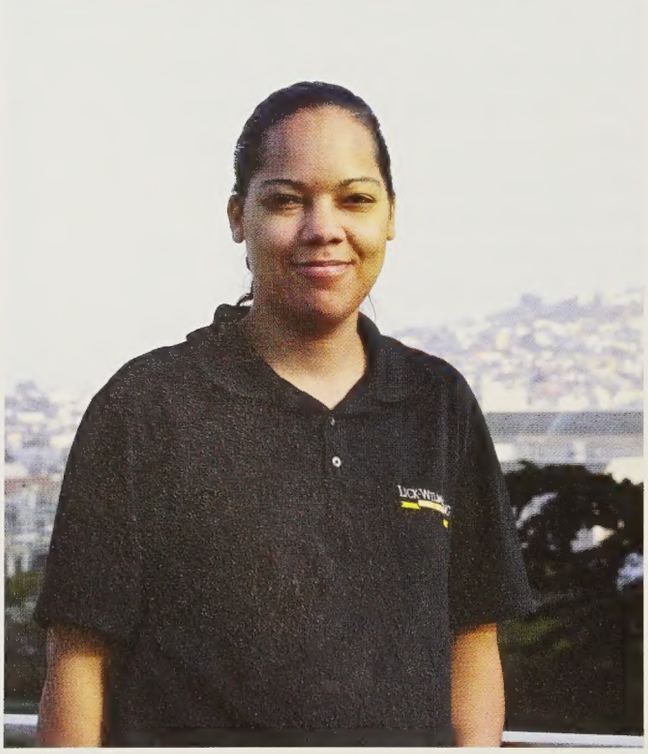
Lastly, we want to thank the FacStaff for molding us into the people we are today. From the constant laughs to long lectures, you've been instrumental in our growth not only as students but also as human beings. We can't possibly thank you all enough. And, to the editors and supervisors of the yearbook, thank you for capturing so many of our moments of joy in this crazy year. This yearbook will be a fun one to look back on.

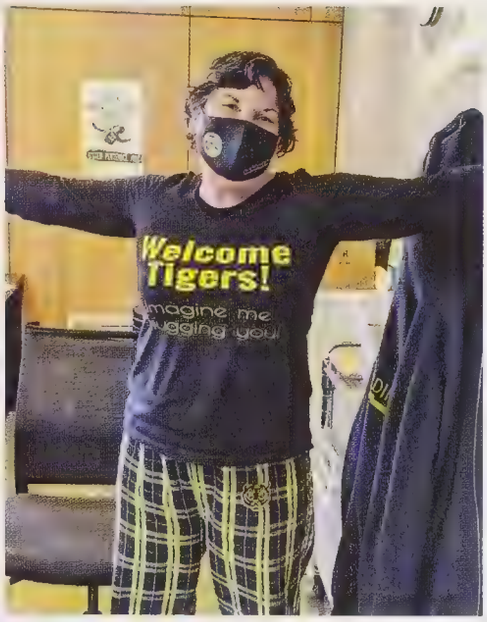
With love,
Jeremy and Journey
Student Body Co-Presidents

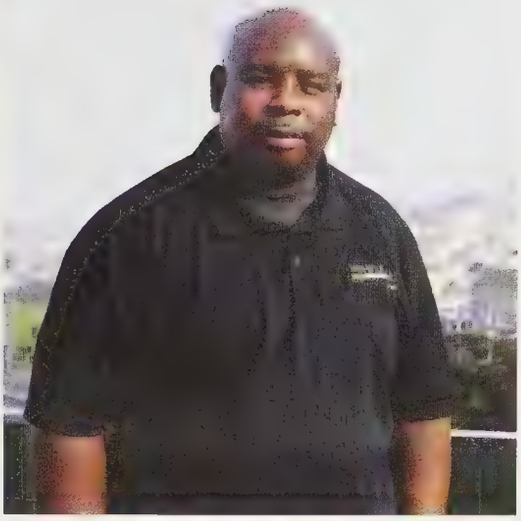
Team Work Makes the Dream Work

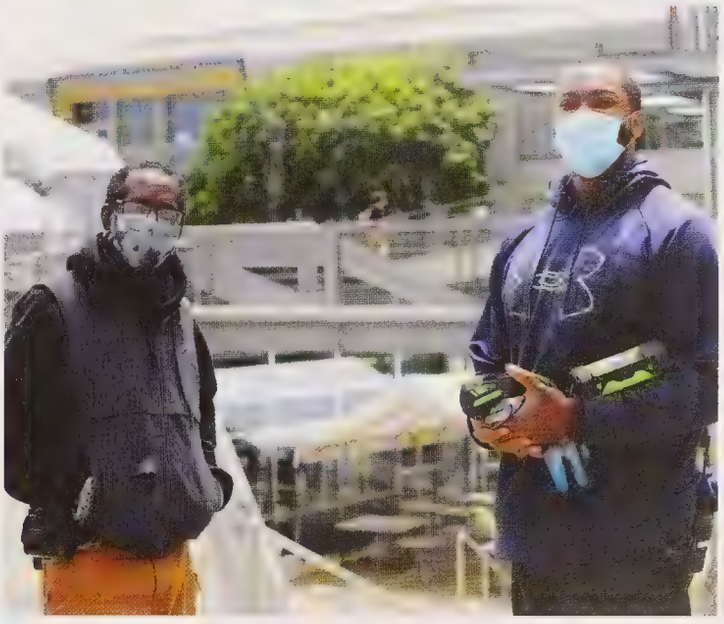
LWHS Facilities is the Dream Team

Over the summer when most teachers, students, and administrators were hunkered down, the Facilities team was on campus everyday preparing the school so that students could return safely. While the Facilities team always works to ensure that everyone has everything they need and that the campus looks and runs smoothly, this past year they did some extra heavy lifting to transform campus by completely rearranging classrooms with new furniture and technology, constructing outdoor tents for lunch cover, updating the HVAC system for optimal airflow, putting up new signage all aver campus, daily deep disinfection and so much more along with the regular consistent upkeep of the campus. To top it all off, they are all just lovely people who keep campus bright with sunny personalities and their motto: Team work makes the dream work. Thank you for everything!









Clockwise from the top: Maurice Williams, PM Custodial Supervisor; Molly French, Receptionist; Tito Buckner, Custodian; Gerald Washington, Maintenance Supervisor and Faheem Carter, Gardener & Custodian, Julio Cruz, Custodian; Maurice Williams and Jorge Garcia, Director of Facilities; Carlos Magana, Custodian; Whitney Clayton, School Safety and Security Monitor, Mike Brooks. Maintenance.

Center: Stanley Chu, Custodian, Gerald Washington, and Justin Victa, Assistant Facilities Manager.

Flight Club Aerospace was created by students for students to inspire others to pursue their passion for aviation. It started as a small group of eight LWHS students, but has grown to over 50 members from SF to LA. They are building a single seat ultralight aircraft and seek to deliver an accessible aircraft-design centered curriculum.

Teen v. Tree: Road Edition

CULTURE 101:

THE 6 MOMENTS THAT ROCKED OUR WORLD

#1: pete + ariana

BY BRIDGET AND MARGARET

Girlboss fact: Bridget met Pete Davidson and Machine Gun Kelly in Paris

The SNL star and Nickelodean burnout's engagement was short lived but WILD. Just like Bridget and Margaret's friendship. As they say, all good things must come to an end. We say THANK YOU NEXT to high school, and to each other. We are through. This is goodbye.

#2: the canadian tuxedos

BY NATALIE AND SOPHIA

Girlboss fact: Natalie promises she'll shave her head a lá Brit some day

Justin and Britney took monochromatic looks to the next level with their head-to-toe denim. However, in light of recent allegations against JT, we hope Britney will leave both the denim dress and Justin's selfishness behind. #freebritney

#3: kanye + taylor

BY ANNA AND KADEN

Girlboss fact: Kaden and Anna were actually hiding under the costumes of Lil Pump and Kanye in the "I Love It" video Trouble! Kanye ambushes Taylor on the stage of the 2009 VMAs, trying to Runaway with her award. "Look What You Made Me Do," Kanye said after this Heartless steal. It's no wonder that All of the Lights were Bound 2 shine on this dramatic scene tonight. Now the two have Bad Blood. P.S. He didn't make that girl Famous.

#4: shawn + camila

BY SYDNEY AND DAISY

Girlboss fact: What happened to Sydney and Daisy in Havana will stay in Havana

Shawn and his Señorita take an early morning stroll when they are accosted by the paparazzi! They clearly did not yet have enough caffeine In Their Blood that morning! It is no Wonder that poor Shawn ended up in Stitches the next day and Camila was found Crying In The Club after their blossoming lockdown love was put on display in the tabloids.

Girlboss fact:
#teamScott

The KarJen clan is the number one largest shaping force of the 2000s cultural zeitgeist. People often call us the second. It was only natural that this was on our list.

#5: THE family tree

We decided to throw it back to where it all began: Season 1 of KUWTK. Right after one sister made her movie star debut and Rob spent many months helping out a certain breakfast liquid named former football player out in court.

#6: royal wedding

Girlboss fact:
Anna sleeps next to a picture of Meghan and Harry to remind herself to marry up

We had a bloody brilliant time in secondary school, innit! However, like the UK, we are looking to #brexit out of this union. Hopefully, Interpol doesn't lock us up in Scotland Yard on our way out. God save the queen(s). Cheerio! xx
